Duplication on Demand—Coming this Spring

This spring the library will be changing its service model from the current practice of sending patrons one book on one cartridge to Duplication on Demand (DoD), which will involve cartridges customized specifically for you with multiple books on each one. The new service will involve the same player and cartridges that we are currently using, the cartridges will just have more books on each one. Your cartridges will continue to come in the same type of container but the mail card will be foldable and will contain a list of books on the cartridge. When you are ready to return a cartridge, you can throw away the mail card and book list; there is an address sticker on each container that will get your book back to us.

There are many benefits to this change. Currently, our audiobook collection contains thousands of older titles that are only available to download; these books will now be as readily available to you as new books are. In addition, you'll now have access to new books faster and will never have to be on a waitlist for a popular title. If patrons return their cartridges as they finish them, this will also help with slower mail times.

To access the titles on your DoD cartridges you can either use the player's bookshelf mode or the sequential play feature. There are instructions for both options on the next page.

The library will begin moving patrons to DoD in April. Please contact us at 1-800-622-4970 if you would like to be among the first patrons to try it.

Sequential Play and Bookshelf

When you have a cartridge with multiple books on it, there are 2 ways to access the books: sequential play and bookshelf mode. Sequential play will play your books in the order they have been loaded on the cartridge, bookshelf mode lets you pick what book you want to listen to.

To use the sequential play feature, you put your cartridge in and listen to the first book as usual. At the end of the book, let the closing announcements play; when they are finished a voice will say “end of book, press play/stop to go to the next book”. Press the play/stop button and the next book on the cartridge will begin playing. Repeat this step until you have listened to all of the books.

To use bookshelf, turn your player on and put the cartridge in. Next, hold down the green “play/stop” button for ten seconds, or until your player beeps and says “bookshelf mode”. Once in bookshelf mode, you can use the “fast forward” and “rewind” buttons to scroll through the books or magazines recorded on the cartridge. When you have located the item you wish to read, press the green “play/stop” button again and it will start to play. Repeat the process for each item on the cartridge.

Join us (by phone) for the April Book Club Meeting

The next meeting of the library’s book club will be on Tuesday, April 14th, at 2:00 PM Eastern/1:00 PM Central. The book will be The Girl You Left Behind by JoJo Moyes (DB 77666, BR 20283, LP 19103), a novel set during World War I. Sophie Lefèvre treasures the portrait her husband painted of her before going off to war. So does the German commander who takes over Sophie's hotel. Ninety years later the painting hangs in the home of London widow Liv Halston--and Sophie's descendants want it back.

Participants can join the discussion by calling our dial in number, 1-240-454-0887, and entering the conference code, 736 597 563#. If you have trouble dialing in, please call us 10 minutes before the start of the meeting and we can transfer you in.

Please let us know if you are interested in participating so that we can contact you about any unexpected changes to either the schedule or call in information. You can request a copy of either book and let us know you are interested in participating by contacting Laura Williams at 1-800-622-4970 or emailing lawilliams1@library.in.gov.

New Books from Indiana Voices

A Perfect Square: Shipshewana Amish Mystery, Book 2* by Vannetta Chapman (IDB00243)

There's more to the quaint northern Indiana town of Shipshewana than handcrafted quilts, Amish-made furniture, immaculate farms, and close-knit families. When a dead girl is found floating in a local pond, murder is also afoot. When the main suspect refuses to divulge any information, even to clear himself of a crime, Deborah and her English friend Callie—fellow sleuth and owner of Daisy's Quilt Shop—set out to uncover the truth.

I can't see with my Gloves on!* by Linda Garshwiler Scribner (IDB00240)

A collection of true-life stories about the humorous things that can and do happen to a person who has low vision or is legally or totally blind.

World War II Legacies: Stories of Northwest Indiana Veterans* by Kayleen Reusser (IDB00241)

These stories from veterans of the U.S. Army, Navy, Marines, and Army Air Corp convey what it was like to be a soldier during WW II at home and around the world. Some strong language. Violence.
